Free concert Thursday will feature blues music

Danville Parks and Recreation's Music on Main concert series, presented by Danville Regional Medical Center, will continue in the River District at 6:30 p.m. on Thursday, June 18, with cool jams by Lawyers, Guns and Money.

This band from Greensboro, N.C., presents a live show that features a healthy dose of instrumentals mixed in with its vocal tunes. With material ranging from BB King to Jeff Beck, to their own original tunes, it has something for everyone.

The concert is free and will be held at Main Street Plaza at 111 Main St. The public is encouraged to bring a lawn chair or blanket.

Other shows in the series include:

- West End Mambo on July 16, singing classic salsa and latin jazz
- Emily Minor on Aug. 20, singing country and rock and roll.

All shows will be held at 6:30 p.m. In case of bad weather, shows will be relocated to the Community Market at 629 Craghead St.

For more information, call Danville Welcome Center at (434) 793-4636.
